ANNUAL REPORT OF ACTIVITIES 2014-15

Mission:

Muslim Education Foundation (MEF), a Non-Government Organization, was established in the year 2010 for noble cause to promote education among the economically weaker strata of society in general and the Muslim community in particular. Its aim is to nurture the intrinsic talents contained in the youths who have career ambitions and professional dreams but are helpless to realize their goals for want of proper avenues and accessibility to available resources. Our endeavour is to sensitize the Community about the importance of education and also opportunities in order to guide and motivate its youth for the need to pursue education as prelude in their quest for a respectable career in life.

In Pursuit of MEF principles to support meritorious and deprived students of the community, MEF has adopted following three students for the purpose of meeting _their educational and other related expenses.

1). Mr. Mohd Zahid:

A detailed account as to how and why he was adopted by the Foundation has been illustrated in our last year's Report. In brief he is one of many children of a Hafiz of Mewat who was working as Muazzin in the village mosque, earning around Rs. 3000/- pm. His son Mohd. Zahid being a bright student qualified admission test for IX class of Jamia Sr.Sec.School but could not take admission for want of fee money. We called his father and paid his fee of admission. But after a month or so he died leaving behind his family and Mohd. Zahid. The Foundation in view of this unfortunate development adopted him in toto and got him admitted in School's hostel. Now Mohd. Zahid is in XII and doing extremely well in his studies, scoring more than 95% marks in every class.

J. Introspection:

The very first word of the Holy Quran revealed to the Prophet Mohammad (pbuh) through Angel Gabrel was Iqra - means 'Read', "Read with the name of Allah" which itself explains the importance of education in our life. There is Hadith too saying "go upto China (considered as the most distant place during that period) in search of education". Despite such a strong emphasis on education by the Almighty Allah and the Prophet (pbuh), the Muslims not in India but globally are the most uneducated lot in comparison to other communities. The other communities are far ahead in all fields of life because they realize the importance of education. The percentage of educated Indian Muslims at present is hopelessly poor. If we believe the findings of the Sachchar Committee Report, the Muslims, educationally and economically, are worse than the Scheduled Castes and the Tribes. And that is why we are persecuted, humiliated, harassed, tortured and 'branded' everywhere in the world. Our children have no hope and future. The fun of childhood has been lost for them. In short, the lack of education is a curse; the fountain head of all miseries, the Muslim society is currently facing. Introspection is the need of time.

I repeatedly ask a question to myself, "Do we not have an obligation towards our weak and deprived brethren? Have we ever tried to know as if the children of our neighbor barber, laundry man, milk man, maid servant, driver, butcher or anyone who is associated with us are going to school? If not, we are, not equally, but more responsible for the present state of education in the community. I am sure if one well off or educated member of our community extends a little financial and moral support just to educate a needy one, the whole community will be transformed.

Though the Government has recently made education an invaluable right, but we are too ignorant to get the benefits of this provision. Our children are badly in need of help in the form of finance, guidance, counseling, etc., to compete with others to face the challenges of present modern life. A little contribution can bring them at par with others.

To achieve the goal of "education to all" I, with the help of some like-minded and equally concerned friends, and out of my meager personal savings, have set up a Trust “Muslim Education Foundation” at J-70, Abul Fazal Enclave, Jamia Nagar, New Delhi – 110025. Its mission is to raise funds through voluntary contributions, donations, etc. from individuals, groups, philanthropists, social organizations, foreign and government agencies, and to provide the same to the needy ones, who are unable to meet their educational expenses. For this purpose the Trust has opened two bank accounts in Indian Bank of Jamia Nagar Branch, one (A/C No. 898418764) for general contributions, donations, and the other (A/C No. 898418356) for Zakaat. The disbursement from Zakaat account will be strictly as per Islamic Shariah. In brief, the Trust will do the job “take and give” and work tirelessly to make it a mass movement. I make an appeal to you to join this noble and religious mission through your precious contributions, donations, suggestions, moral support or the way you deem fit to this cause “Education to All”.

You may kindly send your donation by transfer cash/demand draft/crossed cheque drawn in favour of “Muslim Education Foundation” at New Delhi. While sending your donations on account of “Zakat”, kindly specifically indicate the same.
